Just So You Know

Filling out this form doesn't guarantee approval, but it is the first step toward potentially amazing new ink. If your project aligns with what I can take on, I'll reach out to schedule a private consultation where we can expand on this information and further collaborate on your vision. I often have suggestions or new ideas you might not have considered, and together, we can create something truly unique and spectacular. Thanks for wanting to work with me—I can't wait to get started!

Once this form is submitted, I will review it, and you will receive either a congratulatory letter or a letter of decline. If you are declined, please don't be discouraged; it may be due to my current workload. If it's not a good fit design-wise, your letter will address it.

If we are a fit... CONGRATULATIONS! We get to start on your creative journey together by booking your consultation appointment. During this time, we will review your client design questionnaire and make sure we are on the same page. I'll discuss details, non-negotiables, and my preliminary ideas and vision with you. While we won't finalize the design during this time, rest assured that this consultation will greatly influence my creative process and ultimately the success of the final design.

*There will be a $50 non-refundable consultation fee to book your consultation appointment. This allows me to set aside uninterrupted time to collaborate and talk through your potential concerns and desires.
